A personal touch

“As a multi-award winning horticulturalist with 25 years’ experience of building gardens for prestigious commercial and residential projects, I realised there is a demand for a flexible system that creates the look of a beautiful vertical garden wall planting without the hassle of using real plants that require natural light and ongoing maintenance.”

Paul Alder leads Vistafolia and has 25 years’ experience in the landscape industry. He has won multiple awards including 12 national awards, 5 Chelsea medals including the highly coveted Gold, and a Gold medal at Hampton Court Flower Show.

Leading the way to a Greener Future

We are proud to have been working with the UK government, Innovate UK & The University of Surrey and together, we’ve been leading the field in bio-based polymer research. By purchasing our products, you are participating in our push for a better, cleaner future, as we reinvent our profits into developing sustainable and renewable products for the future.

Dr. Elham Ketabchi is leading the project which aims to establish a new product formula that involves environmentally friendly constituents.

WHY FOLIASCREEN?

IT'S MODULAR,
VERSATILE AND RECONFIGURABLE

8

Fully Flexible

Configure it however you wish, move it anywhere and take it away with you. The Foliascreen adapts to any environment so you can say goodbye to outdated office partitions.

Award Winning Design

The Foliascreen is at home in any environment and can be adapted to your individual needs.

An ROI efficient solution

Biophilic design is proven to make people happier, more creative and more productive. Plus, unlike permanent partitions, you just buy it once then reconfigure and move it infinite times within your space, delivering a positive impact to your bottom line.

STUNNING NATURALISTIC LOOK

Having plants present in your office has been linked in studies to a wealth of attributes, from the potential to increase memory retention by up to 20%, to reducing the likelihood of stress related depression. The amazing benefits of plants should not be underestimated, and more and more businesses are starting to reap these rewards by greening their surroundings. Even hospitals have shown that realistic decorative foliage can decrease recovery times in patients.

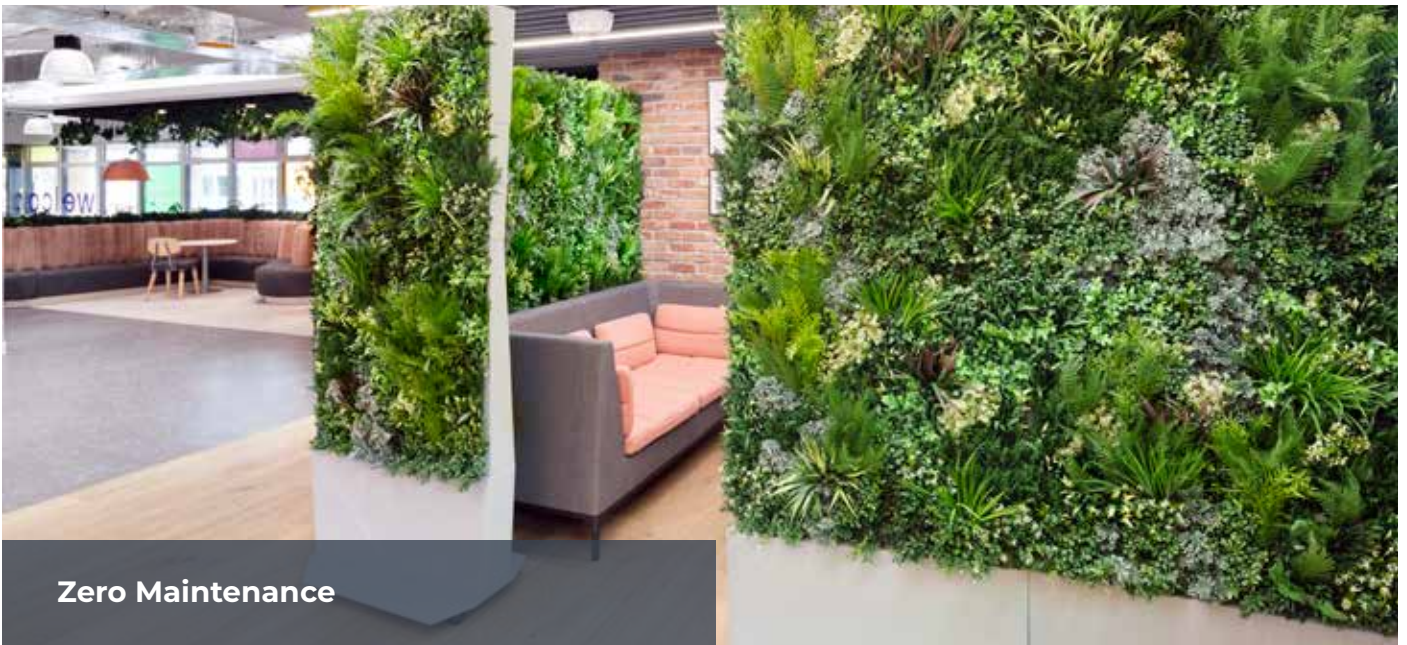

TAKE IT ANYWHERE

The new spaces you create with Foliасreen partitions can be taken down or moved in a matter of minutes. All the benefits of a traditional partition, but with more flexibility to change with your space.

Zero Maintenance
